

A Morning Salutation

(To the tune of Golden Slumbers)

Morning Sun breaks and fills the skies.
God's own dear Love will still surprise.
As in each day we trust to see
The beauty of the Trinity

Love and Care for you and me
Justice, Peace, Equality,
These are the gifts God longs to see
Expressed within humanity

But, all around, indignity;
Pride of self, and treachery
Using of others, and painfully
Our neighbour turns to enemy

Christ, in your risen power today,
Come and transform our moral grey
Set us on fire, in work and play
To sing the song of Trinity
