

Confession

Almighty God, our creator and healer, you know our journeys
The places where we fall, the bruises we carry,
The fractures we sustain in ignorance, perversity or weakness.
We bring you our lives and the World's life - and ask for healing.
Forgive our feeble indifference, our avoidance of abandoned souls.
While we celebrate, women and children are
Prostituted, attacked, enslaved.
Forgive our delight in committees and delay.
Bring healing and restoration to us.
Open our blinded eyes, strengthen our weary limbs.
In Christ's name, Amen

Absolution

The God of encircling peace
The God of restoration
The God who causes Justice to pour down
And drench us with Mercy
Deliver, pardon and rescue you
Support you into wholeness
And bring us all into the healing of God's Kingdom
