

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord has called our name.

His Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them to the Lord!

Gentle and creative Word,
the desire of our heart.
We come to your table to seek your grace,
to offer our thanks and praise,
because loving us, before we understood love,
you became bruised for us.

Forgiving our weakness
your kingship breaks into the world
so that on Easter morning
we know the touch of the anointed one and we are named resurrection people.

Therefore with Mary, who knelt at your feet
and broke open her precious perfume
to anoint you as Messiah,
with all who seek you,
with those who weep costly tears,
who stretch their hand to anoint the broken,
who come to your table for healing,
and find that they are remembered....
with all your saints,
who made themselves vulnerable
we praise you saying:

Holy, holy, holy Lord
God of welcome and touch
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is Jesus Christ, our Lord
Who let Himself be found and bids us welcome to His table
Who saves us with freely offered forgiveness
and accepts those rejected by the world.

Amen. Lord, call us by name,
that we may announce
that you have broken the power of sin.

Jesus offered His love for sinners,
opening wide His arms on the cross.
He set us free to be anointed with Him
To proclaim that our weeping will end.

Amen. Lord, call us by name,
that we may announce
that you have broken death!

On the night that He offered himself
He sat at table with His friends took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said
'This is my body, which is for you.
Do this to remember me.'
In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying:
'This cup is the new covenant made in my blood.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Amen. Lord, call us by name,
that we may announce you as Messiah!

So we remember all that Jesus did for Mary.
We proclaim your new fellowship that by your sacrifice and forgiveness you have saved us and that we too are called to announce new beginnings.

Come then Holy Spirit
pour out your priceless oil of gladness and love
on us and our gifts of bread and wine,

That we too may recognise the face of the Lord.

Amen. Come Holy Spirit

(The service continues with the Lord's Prayer.)
